

WOMEN'S HEALTH IN WOMEN'S HANDS COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTRE

RESEARCH PROJECT OVERVIEW

Title:	EXPLORING HOW IMMIGRANT WOMEN CONCEPTUALIZE ACTIVISM: IMPLICATIONS FOR MENTAL HEALTH PROMOTION
Principal Investigator(s):	Judith McDonnell, York University
Co-Investigator(s):	Notisha Massaquoi, WHIWH; Wangari Tharao, WHIWH; Nimo Bokore, York University; Dr. Mahdiah Dastjerdi, York University; Dr. Nazilla Khanlou, York University
Project Duration/ Funding:	Forum to be held on June 29 th , 2011

Project Summary:

The KTE activities for this project will involve organizing of a forum to bring multiple stakeholders together including researchers, service providers, policy makers and community members including women who participated in the study to:

- 1) To share study findings based on focus groups with immigrant women
- 2) To engage stakeholders and communities in discussions and to collaborate on determining an action plan for research, policy and practice.