

WOMEN'S HEALTH IN WOMEN'S HANDS COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTRE

RESEARCH PROJECT OVERVIEW

Title:	ONTARIO HIV PREGNANCY PLANNING RESEARCH INITIATIVE AFFILIATED STUDY
Principal Investigator(s):	Dr. Mona Loutfy, Women's College Hospital
Co-Investigator(s):	Large co-investigator team including: HIV-treating physicians, obstetricians, fertility specialists, psychiatrists, pediatricians, nurses, AIDS Service Organization (ASO) representatives, Community Health Centre staff, midwives and community members
Project Duration/ Funding:	CIHR Amount: 1.2 million dollars Duration: 2011 - 2016

Project Summary:

The aim of the initiative is to develop a province-wide multidisciplinary initiative that assists HIV-positive couples and individuals with their pregnancy planning intentions based on thorough guidelines developed through the program.